D. International Phonetic Alphabet

LET REVIEWER : MAJOR IN ENGLISH

In 1866, the Linguistic Society of Paris banned any existing or future debates on the origin of language because of the shortage of empirical evidence about the subject. This prohibition remained influential across much of the western world until late in the 20th century.

LET REVIEWER : MAJOR IN ENGLISH

The Phonetic Alphabet

- In 1888 the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) was invented in order to have a system in which there was a one-to-one correspondence between each sound in language and each phonetic symbol
- Someone who knows the IPA knows how to pronounce any word in any language

LET REVIEWER : MAJOR IN ENGLISH

Lingua Franca

A lingua franca is a common language used between people who speak different languages.

Pidgin

A pidgin is a simplified version of a lingua franca, where people trying to communicate across different languages develop their own form of communication.

Creole

A creole is an established form of pidgin, where a language developed from communicating over two or more languages is taken up by a culture as a native language.

Jargon

Jargon is the words and phrases that emerge to cover ideas within a specific community, often when specialist terminology is required (for example technical terms in a profession or sport).

SUMMARY:

"The Wedding Dance" by Amador Daguio, is a short story about a husband and wife, Awiyao and Lumnay, who had been married for seven years. In spite of being in love with his wife, Awiyao felt the need to marry again in order to have a son. At his second marriage celebration, Awiyao went to check on Lumnay, knowing she was upset. Awiyao thought the answer to Lumnay's sorrow would be to have her join the other women during the wedding dance. Lumnay went out to join the wedding dance, but decided not to and left. She could not stand the idea of her husband marrying another woman because she could not give him children.

SONNET 29

By William Shakespeare

When, in disgrace with fortune and men's eyes, A
I alone beweepe my outcast state B
And trouble heaven with my bootless cries A
And look upon myself and curse my fate B

Wishing me like to one more rich in hope, C
Featured like him, like him with friends possess'd, D
Desiring this man's art and that man's scope, C
With what I most enjoy contented least; D

Yet in these thought myself most despising, E
Haply I think on thee, and then my state, F
Like to the lark at break of day arising E
From sullen earth, sings hymns at heaven's gate; F

For they sweet love remember'd such wealth brings G
That then I scorn to change my state with kings.G
