

QUIZ 4: Theories, Principles, and Concepts of Language, Literacies and Language Use

Directions: Choose the BEST answer to each of the following questions.

Points: 22/30

Time: 23:26

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

1.

How does the Interactionist theory of language acquisition propose that children learn language?

*

- ☐ Through innate language-specific abilities
- ☐ Through reinforcement and imitation of language
- ☒ Through interaction with caregivers and others in the environment ✓

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

2. As an English teacher, Mr. Tiamzon believes that linguistic knowledge is insufficient in the students' overall development of language. Which concept is he pertaining to? *

- ☒ Critical Literacy
- ☐ Multiple Intelligence ✓
- ☐ Whole Language

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

3. How does the Social Constructivist theory of language acquisition propose that children learn language? *

- ☒ Through social interactions and the internalization of language ✓
- ☐ Through exposure to language in the environment
- ☐ Through innate language-specific abilities

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

4. How does the Cognitive Developmental theory of language acquisition propose that children learn language? *

- ☐ Through interaction with caregivers and others in the environment
- ☐ Through innate language-specific abilities
- ☒ Through cognitive development and the ability to understand and process language ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

5. Based on sound principles of language, how should Mr. Tabalanza believe children learn language best? *

- ☒ Through interactive and responsive contexts ✓
- ☐ By hearing examples of words and language structures sporadically
- ☐ By hearing words for things they find slightly interesting

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

6. Active engagement is a principle that Mr. Tabalanza demonstrates to improve his students' linguistic competence. What do you expect him to do when teaching prepositions to low-proficiency first year high school students? *

- ☐ Allow students to read the books they like
- ☒ Employ Total Physical Response ✓
- ☐ Utilize new technology and interactive materials

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

7. As a subscriber of Ecological Theory, which of the following should you emphasize? *

- ☐ the complex interaction among family members and classmates in influencing language improvement
- ☐ the complicated nature of relationships among learners and teachers in linguistic competence
- ☒ the complex interaction among family, school, and society in influencing language development ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

8. How do you ensure that the lesson for your English class is of high quality? *

- ☐ By creating a TOS that is aligned with other subject areas
- ☒ By basing it on the objectives of the curriculum ✓
- ☐ By consulting experts in the field

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

9. Which of the following situations demonstrates the principle of Engage and Collaborate within a Community of Practice? *

- ☒ Mr. Abregana divides students into three groups based on their needs and interests. ✓
- ☐ Ms. De Mata asks students to go to the library one by one and research on collaborative practice.
- ☒ Mr. Tabalanza pairs up students to work on their speeches. ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

10. If the primary focus of literacy education is the development of proficient readers and writers, then what should be the role of critical literacy?

*

- ☒ Critical literacy should be integrated into the teaching of reading and writing. ✓
- ☐ Critical literacy is the goal of literacy education.
- ☐ Critical literacy is a secondary focus.

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

11. If Mr. Tabalanza aims to improve the media literacy of his 4th year high school students, how would he go about it in the best possible way to reach the highest cognitive level? *

- ☐ Expose them to different media outfits and have them write a descriptive essay.
- ☐ Ask them to compare different commercials and express their thoughts in class.
- ☒ Let them create a TV ad based on the need of the class. ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

12. How does the Connectionist theory of language acquisition propose that children learn language? *

- ☐ Through innate language-specific abilities
- ☐ Through reinforcement and imitation of language
- ☒ Through the formation of neural connections in response to language input ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

13. How does the socio-cultural context in which students live impact their literacy development? *

- ☒ It has a major impact. ✓
- ☐ It has a minor impact.
- ☐ It is the most important factor.

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

14. Ms. Ampon catches her student Jovani saying the following: "It's best to stay here, for you and I." She then said, "Oh you mean, it's best to stay here, for you and me." What concept is she demonstrating? *

- ☐ modification
- ☐ explicit correction
- ☒ recast ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

15. How does the Linguistic Universals theory of language acquisition propose that children learn language?

*

- ☒ Through innate knowledge of universal grammar ✓
- ☐ Through reinforcement and imitation of language
- ☐ Through exposure to language in the environment

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

16. How does the principle of "Children learn what they hear most" impact language learning in Mr. Tabalanza's classroom?

*

- ☒ It means children will learn language based on what they hear frequently in their environment. ✓
- ☐ It means children will only learn a limited vocabulary.
- ☐ It means children will only learn language in passive contexts.

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

17. How does the Language Acquisition Device (LAD) theory propose that children learn language?

*

- ☐ Through reinforcement and imitation of language
- ☐ Through exposure to language in the environment
- ☒ Through innate language-specific abilities or a specific device in the brain ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

18. Which of the following activities will engage students in digital literacy lessons the most? *

- ☒ by incorporating games, multimedia, and AI ✓
- ☐ by delivering speeches about the value of technology
- ☐ by adding games after a reading activity

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

19. If literacy education should consider the social and cultural context in which students live, then how should teachers approach their teaching?

*

- ☒ Teachers should consider the social and cultural context and adapt their teaching accordingly. ✓
- ☐ Teachers should focus solely on teaching reading and writing skills.
- ☐ Teachers should only teach literacy in a cultural and social vacuum.

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

20. Ms. Ampon gets mad whenever her students make grammatical mistakes in responding to her questions. Which concept of language is she demonstrating? *

- ☐ output modification
- ☐ error correction ✓
- ☒ input alteration

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

21. How should Mr. Tabalanza best motivate his 9th graders in learning the process of writing? *

- ☒ Allow them to freely write anything on a piece of paper
- ☐ Bombard them with good examples of essays and reports from known writers.
- ☐ Elicit from them the reasons why good writers follow a certain procedure. ✓

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

22. What is the implication of sociolinguistics to the teaching of written grammar? *

- ☐ Writing a resume requires an understanding of its reader and purpose. ✓
- ☒ Writing a letter requires a good command of the rules of mechanics.
- ☐ Writing a proposal requires the structures and principles of paragraph organization.

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

23. Mr. Tabalanza thinks that sociocognitive processes influence language development. What is the best way for him to do in the classroom? *

- ☐ He must tell them that interacting with others sharpen their knowledge of grammar too. ✓
- ☐ He must encourage them socialize as frequently as possible sans awareness of sentence structures.
- ☐ He must inspire them to be good models of the target language by speaking fluently and accurately.

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

24. What is the implication of sociolinguistics to the teaching of spoken grammar? *

- ☐ Asking for a salary raise requires knowing the power dynamics between the interlocutors. ✓
- ☐ Performing on stage requires proficiency on the methods of acting and artistry in emotions.
- ☐ Delivering a presentation needs focus on the key ideas as well as the relevant examples.

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

25. How does the Behaviorist theory of language acquisition propose that children learn language?

*

- ☐ Through innate language-specific abilities
- ☐ Through exposure to language in the environment
- ☒ Through reinforcement and imitation of language ✓

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

26. Some students are struggling to learn the difference between the use of in and at. After a diagnostic assessment, Mr. Tiamzon finds out that they also easily forget the lecture given an hour before. What is the best suggestion in this situation? *

- ☐ Make the lesson as fun as possible.
- ☐ Make the lesson stick by using concrete examples and do more drills. ✓
- ☒ Make the lesson dynamic and student-centered.

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

27. Based on the sound principles of literacies, which should Ms. Beria do in relation to reading and writing? *

- ☐ Explain the importance of reading-writing connection to oral communication in the modern world.
- ☒ Provide activities that enable students to produce an output based on what they have read. ✓
- ☐ Create a task that combines both reading and writing at the same time to make classroom time efficient.

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

28. Some students are struggling to understand the speech of an American speaker who visited their school. What is the implication of this to Mrs. Ampon's teaching? *

- ☐ She needs to tell the speaker to slow down his speech until everybody gets his message.
- ☐ She should keep on reminding the students to listen more carefully to the speaker.
- ☒ She has to include the teaching of decoding skills for this group. ✓

✓ Correct 1/1 Points

29. How does the Nativist theory of language acquisition propose that children learn language?

*

- ☒ Through innate language-specific abilities ✓
- ☐ Through imitation of adults
- ☐ Through exposure to language in the environment

✗ Incorrect 0/1 Points

30. How should Mr. Tabalanza view the importance of context in language learning?

*

- ☐ Context is only important in passive contexts.
- ☒ Context is important in both passive and interactive contexts.
- ☐ Context is only important in interactive contexts. ✓

Go back to thank you page

This content is created by the owner of the form. The data you submit will be sent to the form owner. Microsoft is not responsible for the privacy or security practices of its customers, including those of this form owner. Never give out your password.

Powered by Microsoft Forms | Privacy and cookies | Terms of use