

1. Re-study history and stress on our achievement as a people: To build a sense of pride among Filipino youth, which should be done in the curriculum?
2. Existentialism: As a member of the curriculum committee, your chief concern is to give the child freedom to choose, what to learn and believe, as you allow them to set their own identities and standards. What philosophy will you consider?
3. Teacher: Who controls the subject- centered curriculum?
4. The planning of learning opportunities intended to bring about certain desired changes in pupils and the assessment of the extent to which these changes have taken place: Which of the following best defines curriculum development?
5. Validity: What refers to the authenticity of the content selected by the curriculum developer?
6. Feasibility: Objectives must be evaluated in the light of the practical considerations, including teacher competence, availability of instructional materials, time allotment, etc. What characteristic of educational objective is defined by the aforementioned statement?
7. Classroom practices give attention to the maturity and learning problems of each pupil: Which characteristic of good curriculum highlights the psychological nature of the learner?
8. Use your status frequently to establish discipline: To ensure success in curriculum development, which of the following specific actions should a curricular leader avoid?
9. Broadfield: Which type of curriculum design serves as a response to society's demand for integration of knowledge and enables the learner to see relationship among various aspects?
10. There is a high level of cooperative interaction: Which statement about the subject-centered curriculum is not true?
11. Subject-centered design: Which design is easily delivered because complementary books and materials are commercially available?
12. Chronological: Teacher A, a History teacher considers the element of time in arranging the content of her lessons in World History. What way of establishing sequence is given emphasis by Ms. Mateo?
13. Assessment establishes what is to be accomplished in teaching and learning: Which of the following statements is not acceptable?
14. Correlation design: In the elementary level, English literature and Social studies relate well. While history is being studied, different literary pieces during the historical period is being studied as well. What curriculum design is shown here?
15. Curriculum development: This concept includes the sub-processes of curriculum in planning, organization, implementation and evaluation. Which concept is this?

16. Functionally literate or logistically developed Filipino: The Filipino learners envisioned by the Department of Education in the light of the K-12 Curriculum is
17. Subject-centered: Schools divide the school hours to different subjects such as reading, grammar, literature, math, science, history and geography. What curriculum design is referred here?
18. Some degree of flexibility is provided: To provide for individual differences in the classroom, how is curriculum designed?
19. Emphasis upon facts and knowledge for future use: Which is not a description of the learner-centered curriculum?
20. Diagnosis of needs: Which is not a component of curriculum designing?
21. Philippine Republic : The following curricular changes took place in what particular period? Restore Grade VII, double-single sessions was abolished and more textbooks were written by Filipino authors.
22. Realism: "Knowledge is true if it is workable". What philosophical foundation supports this statement?
23. Alignment: What refers to the matching between the curriculum and the test to be used to assess the learners?
24. Articulation: What design element establishes the vertical linkage from level to level to avoid glaring gaps and wasteful overlaps?
25. Separate subject: What type of curriculum divides the school day into different periods such as language arts, social studies, science and health, arithmetic, etc?
26. The program provides a wide range of opportunities for individuals with same abilities, needs, and interests: Which is not a provision for the development of each learner in a good curriculum?
- Self-directed, independent study is encouraged wherever possible and advisable.
- Extensive arrangements are made for the educational diagnosis of individual learners.
- Self-motivation and self-evaluation is encouraged wherever possible and advisable.
27. Instruction: If curriculum is the "means", what is the "end"?
28. Taught curriculum: What do you call the curriculum when the teacher puts into action all the different planned activities in the classroom?
29. Experienced-centered: Teacher A puts emphasis on the immediate felt interests and needs of his students and not on the anticipated needs and interests. What type of curriculum does teacher Bert adheres?
30. Grade placement: What do we call the allocation of content to a definite grade capable of learning?

31. Learnability: What refers to the appropriateness of the content in the light of the particular students who are to experience the curriculum?
32. Japanese: The curriculum used during this period in Philippine history terminated the use of English as a medium of instruction. What period was this?
33. Correlated: Teacher A, a Science teacher tries to enrich the content of her lesson by identifying related concepts in Math. What pattern of organizing subjects did Teacher A consider?
34. No, because it is the experience-centered and not the subject-centered curriculum that emphasizes the integration of habits and skills in learning the knowledge component of a subject areas: Teacher A would like to take part in developing a subject-centered curriculum because she believes that all subjects in this type of curriculum are geared towards the holistic development of the learner. Is her belief about the subject- centered curriculum true?
35. Curriculum members as curriculum resources: Teacher A, the principal of Bagong Barrio Elementary School invited the Brgy. Captain in the school to solicit inputs for a new curriculum in Social Science which highlights indigenous knowledge in the community. What is shown in this situation?
36. Progressivism: Teacher A, a new teacher believes that education is a process of development and is life itself; therefore, experience related to the child's need and interest should be given primary reconsideration. What educational philosophy is being exhibited by Mr. Rivera?
37. It consists of everything that goes within the school: Which of the following statements about the concept of curriculum is not quite acceptable?
38. Learner-centered: Teacher A believes that a new respect for the child is fundamental in curriculum. Thus, all activities in the classroom are geared towards the development of the child – the center of the educative process. To which approach in the curriculum does he adhere?
39. Enhanced Basic Education Curriculum: The K-12 curriculum is also called:
40. Broadfields: One example of this design of subject-centered curriculum is that which shows social studies being combined with geography, civics, and culture and history to comprise one subject area. Which design is this?
41. Curriculum design: Which curriculum development phase focuses on the change which will take place in certain aspects of the curriculum without changing the fundamental conceptions?
42. Stakeholders: What refers to an individual or group of individuals who have a direct and indirect influence in the curriculum development?
43. Substitution: The schools in the 1st district plan to adopt the reading program used in the 3rd district. What level of curriculum improvement is used?

44. Curriculum organization: This phase of curriculum development involves decisions, among other things, on grade placement sequencing of content. Which phase is this?
45. Continuity: Teacher A, a curriculum consultant on Economics insists that in selecting the curriculum content, it is better that throughout the high school years, economic geography concepts be used to recur and be repeated with depth for effective learning. What criterion in content selection is shown here?
46. Integration: Which curriculum design element is taking place when Adrian, a 4th year student can connect the lessons he learned in a subject area to a related content in another subject area?
47. Child-centered: Which patterns of experience-centered curriculum centers around the normal activities of children and is based on each child's needs, interests and potentials?
48. Changing needs and conditions of society: Which of the following is a reason for the continuous appraisal of the existing curriculum in all levels?
49. Recommend changes in curriculum: A stakeholder in curriculum development, Teacher A, a district supervisor and a member of the school board has one of the following primary roles. Which one is this?
50. Curriculum improvement: What process is being undertaken by curriculum developers when they enrich, or modify certain aspects of a particular program without changing its fundamental conceptions?