PREFACE

This LET Reviewer is prepared to help you pass the LET. Mind you, not all who take the LET pass it. In fact, majority of those who took the LET since 1996 failed. The national percentages of passing the LET published in the national daily newspapers ranged from 15% to 36%. This means that the mortality rates have been very high - from 64% to 85%! In other words, for every ten (10) examinees, 6 to 8 examinees fail. Only 2 to 4 LET examinees pass.

Increase your Chances in Passing the LET! This is how.

1. Engage yourself in a review that is focused on the LET competencies. This LET Reviewer in the Specialization – English Book 2 will be of great help. There are some who prepare blindly for the LET. They have no knowledge on the competencies on which they are tested. You are fortunate to have the Table of Specifications with you. They are the focus of this LET Reviewer. Engage yourself in a review that is focused on the LET competencies promulgated by the Board for Professional Teachers, Professional Regulation Commission, in Resolution No. 10 series of 2009.

2. Master the competencies in all the tests. Test your mastery of the competencies by doing the practice test in this Reviewer. Answer the test items given in this Reviewer to the best of your ability. Don't be afraid to commit mistakes; learn it from them.

If you want an honest evaluation of how much you have mastered, be true to yourself. Don't look at the Answer Keys as you are answering the test items. Refer to the Answer Keys only after you have answered the test items.

If after checking your answers against the Answer Keys you find out that you didn't get all items correctly, this means that you have to do more reading. So, read some more. Read as many references as you can in both print and electronic forms to the point of concept mastery. You are given a list of references for additional reading in this Reviewer. It goes without saying that you do not have to limit yourself to these references.

After further reading, go back to the test items which you did not get correctly and answer them once more. This is the way to mastery. If you do that for every competency, you are assured of passing the LET!

3. Learn to shade answer sheets correctly. Many examinees fail the LET because they don't know how to shade their answer sheet correctly. Learn to do it - not light nor dark shading with the use of the LET-like answer sheets attached to this Reviewer.

4. Develop your reading comprehension skills in English. Except in the test items for Filipino in General Education and in the Specialization, all written test items are in English. If your reading comprehension in English is excellent, you will have greater chances.

5. Most of all put your mind and heart into your LET preparation. Right after graduation, prepare the required documents for LET application and once you have them complete, apply for LET at the nearest PRC office as early as possible. You have the list of required documents in the PRC website. Avoid the rush. Avoid the long queue at PRC which happens on the last days of filing for LET application. Take note, the deadline for LET application is usually three months before the conduct of the LET.

Prepare months before the conduct of the LET. The months before the LET should be devoted to serious study. Remember "no pain, no gain". Or better still from William Penn, "no pain, no palm; no thorns, no throne; no gall, no glory; no cross, no crown".

You can't afford to take the LET a second time! Now that you have decided to take it, make a promise and more than that, make a commitment to pass the LET!

Read the poem below then answer question no. 142.

Then said Almitra, Speak to us of Love.
 And he raised his head and looked upon the people, and there fell a stillness upon them. And with a great voice he said:
 When love beckons to you, follow him,
 Though his ways are hard and steep.
 And when his wings enfold you yield to him,
 Though the sword hidden among his pinions may wound you.
 And when he speaks to you believe in him,
 Though his voice may shatter your dreams as the north wind lays waste the garden.
 For even as love crowns you so shall he crucify you. Even as he is for your growth so is he for your pruning.
 Even as he ascends to your height and caresses your tenderest branches that quiver in the sun,
 So shall he descend to your roots and shake them in their clinging to the earth.
 Like sheaves of corn he gathers you unto himself.
 He threshes you to make you naked.
 He sifts you to free you from your husks.
 He grinds you to whiteness.
 He kneads you until you are pliant;
 And then he assigns you to his sacred fire, that you may become sacred bread for God's sacred feast...
